RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Tournament opens _____ and closes _____.
2. Contestants must be logged into the Log Book and pay the daily fee prior to fishing.
3. Only fish verified by a judge will qualify.
4. Contestants may act as a judge for other contestants. A judge does not have to be entered in The Tournament.
5. A judge must have read the rules of The Tournament, be able to verify the weight of the fish and must sign the daily log.
6. Daily results will be recorded in the Log Book by the Commissioner or his delegate and signed by the judge who verified the catch. The following will be entered for each contestant:
 - Weight of each angler's two largest fish caught. All weights will be recorded as read from the scale (NO ROUNDING!) using a scale that is approved by the Tournament Commissioner.
 - Number of fish caught. Note: The number of fish caught does not qualify for any prize; it is recorded for statistical purposes only.
7. Only _____ (species) will qualify within the tournament.
No other species of fish will qualify for the prize.
8. 1st Prize will be determined by weight of the fish as recorded.
9. In the event of a tie for 1st place, the 1st place prize money will be divided equally.
10. 2nd Prize will be determined by weight of the fish as recorded.
11. In the event of a tie for 2nd Place, the 2nd place prize will be divided equally.
12. All contestants must make every effort to assist with other anglers in the successful catch of any hooked fish. In the event of multiple hook-ups at one time, it is "every angler for themselves."
13. The Commissioner has the right to disqualify or fine any contestant for attempting to sabotage or interfere with another angler.

GOOD LUCK!
